

My name is Jeannine Hannah. I am originally from upstate NY but have lived in Alabama for 12 years. I played collegiately at St. Peters College in Jersey City, NJ a small D1 school in the MAAC conference. I have been coaching for over 20 years and have coached at all levels including college, high school, club as well as camps/clinics all over the East coast. I have been coaching with Southern Performance for seven seasons. My husband and I live in Hayden, AL and own a strength and conditioning Facility in Kimberly, AL. I have been teaching for 15 years and currently I am a Language Arts teacher at Warrior Elementary School. My daughter Shelby is 11 and plays for Southern Performance on the 12 national team.